

SITE DISCUSSION FOR CENTRE BID

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

HONITON Town Council is set to consider a number of alternative sites for the proposed community centre.

Following a recent meeting of the East Devon District Council (EDDC) executive committee, district councillors decided to withdraw the offer of land at Lace Walk — which was Honiton Town Council's preferred site for the community centre.

District councillors cited the economic climate and the loss of car park revenue as two of the reasons for pulling the plug on the offer of land at Lace Walk.

A spokesman for the district council said: "Members considered the report of the senior estates surveyor on the transfer of land at Lace Walk car park, Honiton, to Honiton Town Council for a community centre.

"Members discussed the current economic climate, the loss of the car park revenue, the adverse impact of a utilitarian building close to the Thelma Hulbert Gallery and the results of the town poll, which although had attracted a low turn-out, indicated public opposition to the community centre on the proposed site.

"The board acknowledged the wholehearted support of the town council but suggested that an alternative site should be explored."

As previously reported in Pulman's View, plans for a community centre in Honiton have been running for more than 20 years.

A town poll was held on June 24th with just over 900 residents — or only about 10 per cent — casting their vote.

The results showed that 662 people voted against the plans with 257 voting for them.

Honiton councillors said they had no idea that the offer of land would be withdrawn by EDDC. Councillors added that they were saddened by the manner in which the decision was made and communicated.

A spokesman for Honiton Town Council said the issue would be discussed at a meeting as this newspaper went to press yesterday evening.

She said: "This item will be discussed in the Policy meeting on Monday (July 26th)."

The spokesman added that the matter will be discussed in private because a number of sites that the town council may consider could be commercially sensitive.

Postcard art raises £855

HONITON'S Thelma Hulbert Gallery recently teamed up with students from Blundell's School in Tiverton to stage an exhibition and the sale of postcard-sized artworks by students, school children and professional artists.

Around 57 postcards were sold, raising a total of £855 to be divided between the Tiverton Drop-in Centre and the Thelma Hulbert Gallery Youth Art Group.

Another exhibition featuring a collection of work by south west artists has started at the gallery and will run until Saturday, September 11th.

For more information about the exhibition contact 01404 45006.

Burglary is investigated

POLICE in Honiton are investigating a burglary that took place at Honiton Bowling Green between 10pm on Thursday, July 22nd, and 6.45am on Friday, July 23rd.

According to officers, two sheds at the green were broken into and petrol was stolen from a lawn mower.

Anyone with information should contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444 quoting crime number KH/10/574.

Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Growth for youth group

HONITON Brownies could soon be set to expand.

Brownie leader Tina Sillitoe says she is looking into the possibility of opening up another Brownie unit in the town.

She said: "Brownies do it all. From games and crafts to sleepovers and adventures. Brownies make lots of friends and have fun."

Anyone interested in finding out more information should contact Tina on 01404 41720.

A LEAFLET describing the activities taking place at Honiton library this summer has just been produced by Devon County Council.

The leaflet can be accessed at www.devon.gov.uk/summer_leaflet_2010.pdf. It can also be picked up in the library.

Teachers count their successes

TWENTY-FOUR teachers from across Devon have been presented with new qualifications to help children in Devon schools who have difficulties with reading and maths — and among the group were two teachers from primary schools in Honiton.

A dozen members of the group were presented with their accreditation for the Numbers Count programme and another 12 received their Reading Recovery qualifications after year long training schemes.

Devon's director of learning and schools, Judith Johnson, presented the teachers with their new qualifications during a reception in Tiverton.

During the ceremony Michala Hawkins, of Littletown Primary, received Numbers Count accreditation and Sarah Nicholas, of Honiton Primary School, received Reading Recovery accreditation.

Mrs Johnson said: "These initiatives really make a difference and change children's lives. They are time sensitive and resource intensive but not as expensive as a child's wasted life."

Mrs Nicholas added: "I have had a brilliant year and have learnt so much. I found the in-service session challenging, enlightening and fun, in equal measures."

World champion gold for gymnast

WHIRLWIND MONTH FOR SPELBOUND DOUGLAS

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

FORMER Wilmington-based gymnast Douglas Fordyce has returned from the Acrobatic Gymnastics World Championships with a gold medal.

The result caps a whirlwind few months for the 20-year-old after he was a part of the Spelbound group to win Britain's Got Talent.

The world championships were held in Wrocław, Poland, and it was the most successful championships ever for Britain with the men's four clinching gold and the women's trio picking up silver medals.

In the team event, Britain picked up the silver medal, only being pipped for gold by the Russians by less than one point.

Douglas performed in the Men's Pair with his gymnastics partner Edward Upcott.

◆ DOUGLAS Fordyce with his gymnastics partner Edward Upcott

Richard Fordyce, Douglas's dad, said: "He [Douglas] clinched a Men's Pair gold medal beating off the favourites from Russia in a thrilling two-and-a-half-minute display which was near perfect."

"Douglas and Edward had to go through three qualifying rounds in order to reach the final, and they performed solid routines."

"This meant they qualified in second place to the strongly-fancied Russians."

"There was also strong competition from Ukraine, Belarus and China. In the final the scores were re-set to zero so it was everything to play for."

"When the British pair took to the floor they showed nerves of steel and their routine was near perfect."

"Douglas has received many messages of goodwill from all over the south west, and wants to thank everyone for their support."

Action group formed to monitor application

RESIDENTS in Ottery St Mary and West Hill are continuing to protest against controversial plans to build 50 new homes in West Hill.

So far more than 450 people have registered an objection on the East Devon

District Council planning website — and that number is continuing to rise.

As previously reported in this newspaper, hundreds of people attended a special planning meeting held in West Hill Village Hall to discuss the application.

Some residents at the meeting said that the application could benefit West Hill.

An action group has now been formed and will be monitoring the application.

The developer, Blue Cedar Homes, has offered land and a building on it, for primary and pre-school use if planning permission is granted.

Harbour plans given green light by EDDC

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

PLANS to transform part of Axmouth harbour into a water sports centre with restaurant and residential units have been approved by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

As revealed in this newspaper, Axe Riverside Company has been working on the development since 2006.

Several residents have objected to the scheme along with the Highways Agency and Axmouth Parish Council.

A spokesman for the Highways Agency said: "The application is unacceptable in highway safety terms because of the potential for increased vehicular traffic using a substandard junction and the inadequate provision of on-site turning facilities for large goods vehicles."

The plans were given the green light last week. However, a stringent list of conditions has been attached by district council planning officials and these conditions must be adhered to by the developer.

Conditions include no building work taking place before 7.30am and after 6pm Monday to Friday and between 7.30am and 1pm on Saturdays. No work is allowed to be carried out at the site on Sundays or Bank Holidays.

A spokesman for EDDC said: "The ◆ ARTIST'S impression of how the new development at Axmouth harbour could look site represents an opportunity to provide a high quality scheme which is in line with the aspirations of the Seaton Planning Brief and regeneration policies set out in the East Devon Local Plan.

"Whilst there are difficulties with other heavy industrial uses to the north and west of the site it is considered that an approval will be a catalyst for future movement by those parties to come forward with schemes of their own.

"It is anticipated that detailed matters of design and layout together with road drainage and parking details will help offset and resolve local objections to a satisfactory degree."

Friends' cash styles rooms

SEATON Hospital has recently undergone a refurbishment thanks to funds raised by the Seaton Hospital League of Friends.

The friends raised more than £35,000 which was used to transform three single rooms with no toilet or washing facilities into two en-suite rooms.

Hospital matron Diane Walker said: "These rooms will enhance the hospital's facilities by ensuring that patients who are admitted with infections can be nursed in comfort as well as complying with NHS Devon infection control guidelines."

"Myself and the rest of the staff at the hospital would like to sincerely thank the League of Friends for all their hard work and dedication. The League of Friends enabled us to update and improve hospital facilities, making it a community hospital that is well respected by both patients and visitors."

Lady impaled by lampstand

A WOMAN from Colyton had to be rescued by firefighters in the early hours of Monday morning, July 26th after becoming impaled on a lampstand.

The incident took place in the Moorfield area of the town.

A fire crew from Colyton was called to the scene by the ambulance service.

Firefighters used bolt cutters to remove a section of the lampstand, that was impaled on the woman's foot, so that she could be transferred to hospital by ambulance.

Call to end use of 'dangerous' flying lanterns

DEVON and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service has teamed up with the National Farmers' Union (NFU) and is urging residents not to use Chinese Lanterns.

Fire officers and NFU representatives say they are concerned about the dangers the lanterns pose to farmers, crops and their cattle.

A spokesman for the fire service said: "The use of Chinese Lanterns for celebrating at weddings, birthdays or any other special event is growing in popularity. Flying lanterns are usually constructed of paper stretched over a wire frame. They contain a wax candle that enables the lantern to fly for up to 20 minutes.

"The lanterns can ascend to over a mile in the sky — where they will still be visible on a clear night until they disintegrate.

"Research has shown that in some cases embers from the fuel cell can continue to glow for several minutes after the flames have gone out. There is also the very real possibility that hot, glowing embers can fall from the lantern as it flies and could land on people or animals.

"This means the lanterns have the potential to start a fire even in normal use. There is also the danger of a fire starting due to improper use.

"There are particular areas of concern among farmers when the lanterns are ignited near open fields full of standing dry crops, woodland, moorland and barns, as well as being a potential hazard for starting a fire in residential areas especially properties with thatched roofs."

NFU acting director of communications Terry Jones, added: "We have given manufacturers, as well as suppliers, time to take on board our concerns over the sale of these lanterns and move to a safer and more environmentally friendly solution.

"While we have seen some movement by manufacturers and suppliers to biodegradable eco-lanterns, NFU council members felt that moves were too little, too late. The overwhelming majority of them felt that the UK should follow the example set by other countries and ban them outright, thereby ending any possible future harm to livestock, wildlife and the environment."

◆ AXMINSTER Primary School thanked its army of helpers by staging a special event on Tuesday, July 13th. Pulman's View from the churches

With Nigel Speller

OVER boiled eggs and porridge this morning the ministers of Axminster share visions of a united church, make plans to meet and pray in a special place with a panoramic view of the Axe Valley.

Early morning is a good time for these wide and wonderful perspectives. The business of the day is to come; the realities will press in, the natural tiredness of good labour will remind us later to rest.

But morning is good for visions and recommitment. Jesus showed us the way, in rising early to pray.

Along with an increasing number of churches St Andrew's, Colyton, is fortunate to have a group called the Friends of St Andrews who exist to support the very considerable costs involved in the upkeep of the fabric of its magnificent parish church, with its origins in Saxon times.

Some 'friends' attend church others do not but they share the common enthusiasm for the preservation of this ancient building, which they have done for almost the past 30 years.

Currently they are completing support for the restoration of the great west window which was damaged in a fire in 1933 and has not had complete restoration since then.

In charge of this work has been Andrew Johnson, of Exeter, and the total cost of the work will have exceeded £70,000 and included grants from other sources besides the friends.

This work also benefited from current government grants allowing a refund of VAT paid on such repairs, which is due to end on 31st March 2011. The loss of this help would be serious.

But there is another view on our financial situation. Following the recent budget announcements of dramatic government expenditure cuts, a senior Baptist leader, has challenged Christians to live generously, invest in their communities and give society a taste of the Kingdom of God.

Revd Roy Searle, a former Baptist Union of Great Britain president, believes the coalition's austerity moves are 'a summons for the church to live generously and embrace simplicity'.

Citing the Acts 2 verse on common ownership, Mr Searle, said: "Don't invest in buildings — invest in people. How many churches think about redistributing wealth across their congregations?"

Mr Searle made an appeal to Christians to consider where they put their trust. He continued: "We have an opportunity to show that we have different values to consumerism."

The Church of England has moved closer to appointing women as bishops.

Its parliament, the General Synod, dealt a blow to the Archbishop of Canterbury's authority by rejecting his compromise for installing women bishops while accommodating opponents of the scheme.

A crisis loomed, with some traditionalists threatening schism, until the Archbishop managed to get a weaker measure agreed, patching together a temporary truce.

The new agreement commits the church to making arrangements at a local level for Anglicans who are unhappy with female leaders.

However, some conservatives vowed to fight on, as the legislation can't be finalised until Diocesan Synods approve it, and it won't be ratified until the 2012 Synod.

The first women bishops could be appointed in 2014.

In what's seen by many as a snub to the Church of England, the Roman Catholic Church has re-classified the ordination of women as a 'crime against sacraments'.

The move came just three days after the Synod's decision on women bishops.

The new Catholic regulations mean that women who try to become priests — and those who aid them — will be investigated by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (CDF).

Women priests were already subject to excommunication, but the change to the rules makes the offence as serious as paedophilia in the Vatican's eyes.

The decree comes following the recent move by the Pope to offer traditionalist Anglican clergy, upset by the Church of England's drift towards women bishops, to defect to Rome while retaining some aspects of their Anglican faith.

Catholic-leaning Anglicans claim hundreds of priests may leave.

Exeter Cathedral has exhibitions relating to their companion Dioceses of Cyprus, the Gulf and Thika.

Prayers will be said at 12noon on Saturday, July 31st in the chapel for justice and peace. All are welcome.

While the summer continues Honiton parish has its annual team barbecue at Jackson's Nursery on Friday, August 6th at 6.30pm.

At St Paul's Church itself there is lunchtime music on Wednesday, August 4th at 1pm preceded by lunch, and again on Tuesday, August 17th at 12 noon, with lunch followed by an organ recital by John Mingay.

Twinning help

THE host-coordinator for German students visiting Seaton says she could help the town's twinning association in its quest to find a German twin town.

Every summer Sharon Bruce organises educational visits to Seaton for up to 40 German students from Weil der Stadt.

Speaking to Pulman's View, Sharon said: "I met up with the Seaton Twinning Association some years ago when I had hoped to arrange a twinning with the German town of Weil der Stadt. Sadly, I was not able to commit to the task at the time, but will reconsider things again."

"For the past 34 years, German students and their teachers have visited Seaton and enjoyed a holiday of two to three weeks. The students are aged between 14 and 17 and for many, it is their first visit to England."

"The students stay with host families in Seaton and the surrounding area. They experience the life and routines of an English family. The students study each week-day at St Gregory's Church Hall and at home, to develop and enhance their understanding and speaking of English."

Mrs Bruce says she has now spoken to Jeff Day, chairman of the Seaton Twinning Association, and is hoping to discuss the option of Seaton twinning with Weil der Stadt.

Supporters will continue to raise thousands

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

DEVON Air Ambulance Trust supporters in Seaton have raised thousands of pounds for the charity and are now planning to hold an air ambulance week in the town in an effort to raise more funds.

Over the past few weeks supporters of the air ambulance in the seaside town organised a series of activities and competitions and entertainment in pubs throughout the town. Pub competitions included darts, crib, poker, pool and boules.

A total of £2,244.03 was raised for the charity. A spokesman for Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Trust supporters said:

"Seaton Devon Air Ambulance supporters wish to thank everyone involved in this successful fundraising event. Thanks to the Royal Clarence pub, The Eyre Court Hotel, the Vault Bar and the Hook and Parrot.

"Special thanks must also go to numerous local businesses for prizes donated to the raffle and of course to the Seaton residents and visitors for their generous donations.

"We are already planning exciting events for our next major fundraising event. This will be a special Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week taking place from August 1st until August 7th. It will become an annual event for Seaton.

"Lyme Regis and Sidmouth have a lifeboat week and we are going to have an air ambulance week."

Bus scheme for students introduced

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

Students aged over 16 across the county are set to benefit from the Smartrider bus pass scheme from the next academic year.

The initiative has been led by Devon County Council (DCC) and will enable students to receive discounted travel from the county council or their local college on their journey to and from college.

The pass will also offer students a number of benefits during off-peak times including after 6pm on college days, all day at weekends and college holidays.

Stuart Hughes, DCC cabinet member for highways and transportation, said: "The Devon Smartrider pass offers plenty of benefits for post 16 students in full time education right across Devon which makes it fairly flexible and value for money for travelling at evenings and weekends.

"This scheme is a great example of partnership working with bus companies and these additional off-peak benefits are being provided at no additional cost to the county council."

Christine Channon, DCC cabinet member for schools and skills, added: "I'm delighted that we're able to provide such a beneficial scheme, that will prove extremely useful to post 16 students.

"It's also pleasing that in extending this scheme we are able to respond to the youth parliament's concerns about improving access to public transport."

The pass is also valid to and from some towns outside of Devon including Bude, Chard, Dulverton, Launceston, Lyme Regis, Saltash, Wellington and Taunton.

For more information visit www.devon.gov.uk/school_transport or call 0845 155 1019.

Shoppers raise £250 for first response team

A COLLECTION for the first response team based at Seaton Fire Station was held by Seaton and District Lions Club recently.

The collection was held at the Co-op store in the town and the group raised £250.

A spokesman for Seaton Lions said: "Thank you to everyone who supported this cause. The next collection will be for the Co-op's chosen charity, Seaton and District Hospital League of Friends."

Worlds apart

WORKING for a local paper in these times is possibly not a job which immerses you in the height of modern technology — but it's certainly getting there.

Local papers — or the 'parish pump' as our leader Sir Ray Tindle fondly calls them — are admittedly not usually known to be at the top of the technical food chain due to the nature of the businesses, especially those which are nestled deep in the heart of the countryside community.

However, the local press industry is gaining weight in that department and keeping afloat of all things techno.

Last year, Pulman's View launched its brand new-look website — www.axminster-today.co.uk — which has an abundance of features within its pages, including ordering photos, sending letters and commenting on stories.

It also boasts the feature to enable the user to read that entire week's issue of all of the papers online. This is an excellent tool for if you miss an issue, cannot get out to pick up a copy or are on holiday — or honeymoon.

And I can tell you, it was invaluable to me when my new Lovely Farmer Husband and I travelled to Kenya for our recent honeymoon.

Our plush hotel had a 'cyber cafe' on site which was really easy to use and it meant I could keep up-to-date on what was happening back home and at the office.

I wasn't too bothered, obviously, as I had sun, sea and cocktails to keep me occupied but it was good to know what was happening in World Pulman's without me.

Of course, whilst on safari there was no such luxury. We travelled to several of the game reserves and were lucky enough to see all of the Big Five — lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and buffalo — within the first two days.

One lioness, pictured, came up very close to our truck whilst quenching her thirst at a small watering hole. It was amazing to witness such a wild and beautiful animal in its own habitat but at such close range. She was aware of us but not very wary. Mind you, she could probably have eaten all six of us plus the driver and had the truck for dessert.

Driving to and from the parks was an eye-opener too. It was very humbling to travel through third-world towns and villages and witnessing a snippet of how difficult life is for some.

We saw many women, of all ages, carrying huge containers filled with water — on their heads. No hands. Some we would drive past along a dirt road where there was nothing else for miles, accentuating the distance some must travel just to get clean water.

It's hard to accept life is like this for so, so many when we take for granted that at the flick of a tap we have clean, drinkable water — and hot water when we want it.

It was a massive extreme to see that and then to return to our hotel and be able to read my own newspaper online. A very strange feeling indeed.

We had a wonderful experience in Africa and, it must be said, the Kenyan people are generally uber-friendly... putting us Brits to shame really.

I did toy with the idea of writing this column from Kenya and emailing it over but, let's face it, I was on my honeymoon, plus the cocktails were calling.

◆ THE Old Vicarage bed and breakfast in the village of Broadhembury has had a makeover and now offers five star accommodation

Five-star standard stay at old vicarage

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

A MOTHER and daughter team has expanded a bed and breakfast in Broadhembury, near Honiton.

The Old Vicarage has been open for business since 2007, but now it has had a change of image and more rooms have been created.

Christine Roberts and her daughter Sarah Carter have been working for more than a year to transform the Old Vicarage and its gardens into five star accommodation.

Christine said: "I was inspired to set up the bed and breakfast after living in Broadhembury for 21 years and being asked by friends to recommend somewhere really special to stay — it was clear that there was a niche market.

"I started offering bed and breakfast on a small scale in 2007, but when Sarah moved into the adjoining half of the vicarage last year we started work transforming the whole building into a business.

"What we've tried to do is enhance the stunning architecture of the vicarage with luxury modern furnishings which can offer guests a five-star standard of accommodation. Naming each room after a local historical figure has helped us retain a sense of history.

"We enlisted the help of an interior designer to create exactly the right sort of ambience and we're delighted with the results."

Sarah added: "Setting up the bed and breakfast with mum has been challenging, but at the same time, incredibly rewarding. We each have our own areas of expertise and because of our close relationship, we're able to discuss decisions and ideas openly.

"We have already had several bookings and the general feedback has been very positive. Ultimately, we both had the same vision for the bed and breakfast and it's great to see how that has translated into the finished product. We really feel that we offer something out of the ordinary."

Council warning to firms over child working laws

DEVON County Council (DCC) is warning business owners across the county that they could be fined thousands of pounds if they employ children unlawfully.

Council officers say that all children of compulsory school age in Devon require a work permit from DCC to take on a part time job and work lawfully.

Andrea Davis, DCC cabinet member with responsibility for children's health and well being, said: "It is commendable that so many children in Devon want to go out and earn some money, or help their parents in their business. Getting some valuable work experience is often a rewarding and beneficial experience for our local young people.

"Child employment laws exist to safeguard the education, health and welfare of compulsory school age employees. However, not everyone knows about the regulations in place to ensure young people's safety when they are working.

"The valuable work of the county council's education welfare service helps ensure this legislation is enforced and that these children are being properly looked after at their place of work and that their employment does not interfere with their education.

"I would encourage employers to make sure they understand their responsibilities and work with our officers to ensure they are complying with the law or risk facing big fines."

Christine Ellison, DCC child employment and performance officer, added: "We are keen to work with businesses anywhere in the county to ensure they comply with the law, and I would encourage anyone employing children of compulsory school age to get in touch for information.

"Children working without a permit may not be covered by the employer's insurance, which has serious implications for those children who are injured at work and need compensation.

"It is important that employers understand that these laws are valuable in protecting our young people, and we are becoming increasingly concerned that a lack of awareness and understanding of these laws is leaving our children vulnerable to exploitation and injury.

"Businesses who do not comply with these laws are risking the safety of their young employee and could face fines of up to £1,000 per offence." For more information contact 01392 384713.

Baskets are a pleasure

EDITOR — Aren't the hanging baskets at the corner of South Street and Lyme Road in Axminster a picture this year?

A friend and I were having coffee in Piggingood the other day and commented on their freshness as we looked through the window and across to the corner.

We had always thought the council came round to water the baskets but found they were only in place at all this year due to the efforts of Paula, who runs Piggingood, and her husband. They also water the baskets every morning.

A big thank you to two very public spirited people for the pleasure their work gives and for brightening a corner which has been referred to in the past as an elephant pound.

Council won't respect decision made by town

EDITOR — Now that the town has voted, in a poll open to anyone who cares or has an interest, it seems that the council is unlikely to respect the result.

It insists the poll was not a representative reflection of what the people of Honiton want.

Perhaps it was not representative of what the council wanted?

In the week of the poll, both local free newspapers carried a significant editorial piece on behalf of the council, urging everyone to vote and why they should vote yes for the complex.

How many readers would have realised that this was not ordinary editorial, but actually an advert.

Adverts have to be paid for — unless this was a commercial exception?

So the council had paid for an excellent platform to further publicise their cause.

One not readily available to all those who felt differently.

Did this add to or subtract from the democratic process?

We must make up our own minds on this point and remember when the time comes for us to cast a yes or no vote.

Following this seemingly unfair propaganda campaign, the poll result was an uncompromising failure for support in the project.

The claim that only just over 10 per cent was not suitably representative, is to my mind completely wrong.

That nearly 90 per cent of the local population didn't bother to vote, is an even clearer indication that the local community are less than interested in the complex.

The complex, which the council insist that everyone in Honiton wants. What wider consultation can there be than this poll?

Yet that is what the council is now proposing.

There is one further point that should be considered, especially at a time when economic savings are being pursued in every corner of governmental and community life.

What if the complex gets built and the usage falls short of the level needed to maintain the balance of its financial operation?

Given the results of the poll, whichever interpretation you chose to put upon it, this is a distinct possibility.

Where will the council turn to in order to subsidise that shortfall?

It will almost certainly be the local community.

That's the likely sting in the tail of the Beehive Complex.

I would suggest that a serious reconsideration of strategy would gain far more respect than blundering on regardless.

Young cast congratulated

EDITOR — May I through your letters congratulate the youngsters of ACT 2 for their recent performance of the musical Hairgel in Axmouth Village Hall.

From a nervy start on the Thursday to a standing ovation on the Saturday they put on a superb show.

The cast aged between 10 and 14, and the backstage staff should feel very proud of themselves for raising an incredible £1,021 for the charity C.R.Y — Cardiac Risk in the Young — in memory of two young mums who died from Adult Sudden Death Syndrome.

Why not encourage the allotments?

EDITOR — In response to the article on the front page of the Pulman's View on Tuesday, July 13th. Today people are encouraged to grow their own produce.

In other villages and towns I hear of land being given over to allotments.

What about Honiton? It seems people are making it as difficult as possible.

Are we ashamed of having allotments at our backdoor? Should they be out of sight?

I think it is a great idea to take on Honiton Bottom Road as an allotment site.

When I lived opposite the site I could have enjoyed seeing people who wanted to grow their own fruit and vegetables, were interested in maintaining a healthy environment, creating together a special community who cared for the planet and above all their families.

They want a better life, where the adults and children can be involved.

I congratulate the council for submitting an application to create allotments on the land near Honiton Bottom Road.

Distressing call to flower thief to stop stealing

EDITOR — To the person stealing the flowers from St Michael's Church in Honiton.

I myself have had flowers taken on more than half a dozen occasions — the last flowers I put up there remained in place for less than three hours.

I am unsure as to why you feel the need to do this cruel act time after time?

Some may feel that perhaps you are grieving, others that you are unwell but your behaviour cannot be excused for any reason.

What you are doing is showing a complete lack of respect for those who have lost loved ones.

To some the churchyard is a place where they can go to still feel close to family members or friends.

Finding flowers taken when they had been lovingly chosen and placed there is a cruel and distressing event.

What, or who, gives you the right to trample on someone's feelings like that?

You, therefore, leave us with two options. Either we have to get artificial flowers — my late mother would have been very upset with that option — or we have to give up placing flowers and why should we have to do that?

If you are a grieving relative, or if you are unwell, there are people you can go to see to talk through the feelings you have.

If, however, you are taking them for financial gain then words cannot describe your actions.

If you have just an ounce of human kindness or compassion in you I ask you to please stop doing this.

Please stop taking the flowers. Please allow people to continue to go to visit their lost loved ones and continue to find comfort from remembering them.

Please allow people the respect they so rightly deserve.

St Michael's churchyard is a comfort to so many, please allow it to stay that way.

Name and address supplied

Thanks for the group's support

EDITOR — On behalf of Feniton History Group I would like to thank everyone most sincerely for supporting the 150th birthday of Feniton Railway Station.

It was just wonderful to see everyone and even more amazing to see folk walk in carrying train memorabilia to display. The whole day far exceeded our expectations.

The best moments were retired station staff meeting up again after so many years.

Many memories of the Railway Hotel, aka the Nog Inn and the chapel, Sunday school outings, and so much more.

To close the day the Rev Danny Beavan conducted a service to mark the closure of the Sidmouth Junction Chapel.

This does not mean the end of Danny's work, as he will still be very much part of the village working from the youth centre.

We all wish him well in this new phase.

Personally, I want to thank the group members for all their time and support.

We raised £771 to share between St Andrew's Church and Rev Danny Beavan's Baptist work in Feniton.

OAPs waited long time for bus passes

EDITOR — The people who wrote about free bus passes have no idea how long we had to wait for them.

Firstly, we could only go into Exeter a couple of times a week by Swards coaches driven by Ron.

Then First buses started their half-price fares but we couldn't use them out of Devon, from Lyme Regis to Weymouth we had to pay full fare.

Finally we got free passes and we were absolutely delighted.

If the buses are full of OAPs they would be empty otherwise making the service surplus to requirements.

TONY JACKSON

Park success despite blaze

ABOUT 12 months ago I reported on the creation of a community nature reserve at Chard Junction Quarry, an initiative undertaken by Dorset Wildlife Trust and the owners of the site, Bardon Aggregates.

Sadly, the bird-watching hides were set on fire by some bone-headed moron(s), but this setback has made no difference to the reserve's success, a success compounded by the fact that a pair of ringed plovers have nested there and successfully brought up four chicks. This is indeed a cause for celebration as this is a first for these little waders in the area and shows just how useful old quarries can be in terms of wildlife havens.

Although the company is still extracting gravel on the working part of the quarry, the manager, Tony Pearson, ordered an exclusion zone round the nesting site to make sure there was no disturbance. Although the adults have striking black, brown and white plumage, the fledglings are grey and sandy brown and are experts at "freezing" and vanishing from sight if danger threatens. Fortunately, despite the presence of foxes, badgers, crows and buzzards the youngsters have survived and it is hoped they will become regular visitors to the reserve.

This community reserve enjoys excellent wildlife habitats, including woods, ponds and establishing grassland. Close to the Somerset and Devon borders (only two miles from where I live) it is of great value as there are no other nature reserves nearby. Reserve leaflets are available from Chard Tourist Information Centre or from Bardon Aggregates on 07730 832767.

Chard is in the news, but not for all the right reasons. Sadly, Chard and District Museum is under threat of closure because of progressive withdrawal of South Somerset District Council grants and, bluntly, the museum no longer has the wherewithal to pay its rent so the trustees will have to make a decision about its future. If it is closed Chard will lose a tourist attraction and local history will be demeaned. The Museum consists of four buildings which contain hundreds of exhibits and displays and help is desperately needed if this catalyst of local history and culture is to be saved for future generations. Currently the Museum is run as a registered charity and administered entirely by unpaid volunteers, but admission charges and the odd casual donation are not sufficient to ensure its future. Few local residents visit the museum, and it relies on a modest audience of tourists.

The museum had its foundation, around 1880, in a collection of curiosities acquired by one, Arthur Hull, a local surveyor, and who left them to Chard Town Council when he died. The collection was handed to Somerset County Museum in Taunton in 1917 and stayed there until a newly formed Chard History group campaigned for a museum in the town. Four derelict 16th century cottages were bought by the Town Council, restored and most of the Arthur Hull collection was returned. The museum now contains several collections of national importance, including those of John Stringfellow (1799-1883) the pioneer of powered flight, and James Gillingham (1839-1924), a leading maker of artificial limbs. There is also a collection of locally made agricultural machinery.

Chard has a fascinating history going back to Roman times and has had a chequered history. Much of the town was destroyed by fire in 1577, but was soon rebuilt and flourished on the wool trade, until competition from the north of England forced a change of direction into lace net manufacturing, an industry which continued until the middle of the last century, though still continued nearby by Perry Street village.

This museum must not be lost and an appeal is now being made for visitors or anyone interested to become a Friend of Chard Museum by a single membership gift of £10 and/or a donation. If you feel you can help this cause please contact Chard Museum, Godworthy House, High Street, Chard TA20 1QB or call 01460 65091.

The history of Honiton Show

The first Honiton Show was held in 1890, the 54th year of Queen Victoria's reign in fields on Bramble Hill, Honiton.

The Association was then named The Honiton Union District Store Cattle and Poultry Association. Its first president was Viscount Sidmouth. That year the show was held on 2nd October, with admission costing one shilling and a grand after show dinner at the Dolphin Hotel.

Thirty years and a world war later, in 1920 the show moved to Dowell Street and the association was re-named Honiton Union District Agricultural Association. After the second world war in 1946 the classes included Labourers Long Service Awards and judging of the Hunting Hounds. Poultry classes disappeared and dairy cattle were very low on entries; This was due to the rationing taking effect during the war. The year 1948 saw the introduction of The West Of England Hound Show. This was the beginning of what is now one of the largest and most prestigious Hound Shows in the country.

The association, now known as Honiton & District Agricultural Association, celebrated its centenary in 1990 as a limited company and held a special show to commemorate with some 290 trade stands and compared with closer to 400 in 2003. The association has come a long way since 1890 and is ready for the next one hundred years!

(Hosts to The West of England Hound Show)

This Year: The 120th Honiton Agricultural Show takes place on Thursday 5th August 2010

The show received record livestock entries in 2009 and the visitors packed the cattle and sheep lines trying to get a glimpse of the magnificent animals being shown. Following the introduction of Alpacas last year the organisers reported a fantastic ninety four exhibits. The Grand Parade will take centre stage amongst the main ring activities where the day's prize winners will proudly parade giving the viewing public a wonderful opportunity to see the beautifully turned out exhibits.

The Main Ring is delighted to host for the first time the Bolddog "Lings" Freestyle Team, Honda's official and the UK's number 1 motorcycle display team! Victor Pitts is a working sheep farmer in Devon and will bring his fantastic sheep dog, sheep and duck display to the main ring. Victor works with beautiful Border Collies showing their commitment and his pleasure of bringing traditional farming to life. Audience participation is encouraged giving the public a real taste of this fascinating profession. Again Honiton will play host the West of England Hound Show a show within a show which forms a major part of the lower field's countryside activities. The vintage tractors can also be found in this area where over 90 vehicles are on display. A new addition is the Blacksmiths Guild where ornate iron work is produced and competitions run throughout the day.

Water issues on group's agenda

MEMBERS of the Royal British Legion's Axminster Women's Section heard about water issues when Neil Whiter from WaterAid visited at the last meeting.

Everyone takes water for granted. On average people use 150 litres per person, per day in the UK. The Americans use between 450/700 each, depending upon location.

The UN recommends the minimum usage should be 20 litres per person, daily, when the truth is many people in developing countries exist on 10 litres daily.

However, the awful truth is the water consumed is untreated, from a water supply that is used for cooking, washing, drinking and shared with local herds and other animals who often defecate in the water.

A horror story in the western world, but a fact of life for so many.

Since its formation by water board employees and the British Water Industry in 1981, WaterAid, has helped 13.4 million people in 17 countries in Africa, Asia and the Pacific region.

Bearing in mind that water-borne diseases, such as dysentery, cholera, and typhoid kills 4,000 children every day, and this figure excludes adult deaths, the need to provide safe drinking water for all people throughout the world is of paramount importance.

Not surprisingly, the collection of water is left to women and girls and many walk three miles each way to wells, three times a day, carrying up to 20 litres of water each.

Now for the good news. WaterAid has captured the imagination of hundreds of thousands of people, not only in the UK, but Australia and the USA.

In this country people organise fund raising events, children undertake sponsored activities and bikers also do their bit, as they do for so many other good causes.

The last coastal path walk raised over £80,000 and it is hoped the one planned for September will exceed this amount.

Interestingly, the group learnt that Dr John Snow (1813-58), a prominent anaesthetist, discovered the link between water contaminated by human waste in 1854 when over 400 people died within 10 days in Soho, from using a communal pump.

Only four people lived outside the area, but sent their servants to collect the water, thinking it was cleaner.

Its close proximity to a cess pit caused the tragedy and following this the Victorians developed the great sewer system in London, which still exists today.

WaterAid's vision is a world where everyone has access to safe water, sanitation and hygiene education for the world's poorest people.

By donating £15 each, one person will receive a lifetime of safe drinking water. RBL Axminster Women's Section raised over this amount from a raffle held on the night.

◆ AWLISCOMBE Womens Institute held a garden party recently to celebrate the 90th birthday of the Devon Federation. The ladies took part in several quizzes and a hat competition during the party. The winner of the hat competition was Judy Spiller, left, and Pam Spiller was runner-up

French descendant tells all to members

AT the July meeting of Axminster Probosc Club member Paul Martin gave a talk.

It is not generally realised that the name of Martin is also French but Paul's great uncle, Paul Augustus Martin, was in fact a Frenchman, born in Alsace-Lorraine in 1864.

He moved to Paris at the age of five when the family lost all its possessions as a result of the Franco-Prussian war. Two years later he sailed to England taking British nationality in 1872.

In London he worked for the press as a wood engraver for thirteen years but it was his growing interest in photography which was to ensure that his name would go down in photographic history.

He was to win a Royal Medal of the Royal Photographic Society in 1896 and went on to set up a business partnership which specialised in studio work though he also covered state events as well.

Retiring in 1926 he died in 1944. One of his sons sold his collection of photographs for £100; they were subsequently bought by the Victoria and Albert Museum for £15,000.

His nephew has, alas, not yet had a similar degree of recognition though he gave an interesting run down on his own career which led him into the printing business.

Like many such businesses it was hard hit by the change to computerisation and Paul subsequently served in the National Archives until his eventual retirement and relocation to Axminster.

Rhyme theme at floral show

THE Axminster Flower Club's annual open afternoon took place on Friday, July 9th in the URC room, Chard Road.

The theme for this year's flower show, Nursery Rhymes, inspired members to create diverse and colourful arrangements.

Vice-chairman, Pam Burge presented first prize for the advanced class and best in show to Betty Copland for her design. Pam Burge was second and Grace Peach third.

Cynthia Stevens was highly commended for her design.

In the intermediate class the winner was Lesley Frankau, Ding Dong Bell.

Second and third were Marlene Sharpe and Jackie Dabbs who both made designs of Oranges and Lemons.

Highly commended was the entry of Barbara Nevitt.

Tram event

ATTENDANCE was high at the May Seaton Women's Institute meeting to debate the National Federation WI 2010 resolution.

On a lighter note one of the group's members gave an amusing account of living on three very diverse islands, Malta, Cyprus and Hong Kong.

Seaton WI celebrated the 90th Anniversary of the Devon Federation with a trip on one of Seaton's trams.

The tram carried the new banner and was driven by Mr Neil Rutter a member's husband.

Although there wasn't much sunshine the group enjoyed a walk and picnic followed by a cream tea in Colyton.

PECORAMA at Beer, is one of East Devon's leading visitor attractions and home to both the famous PECO Model Railway Exhibition and Beer Heights Light Railway.

The Exhibition hall displays wonderfully detailed railway layouts, with push-button controls enabling children to operate the trains. Outdoors, a fleet of miniature steam locomotives pull passenger trains on a mile long route through the grounds, over bridges, through steep-sided cuttings and a long, dark tunnel!

PECORAMA also features the Millennium Celebration Garden, five themed garden 'rooms' linked by attractive walkways, whilst stunning stonework and special water features continually catch the eye. The individual garden names of Sun, Moon, Rainbow, Roof and Moat Garden reflect the nature and colour of the plants found in each.

Children can choose from a variety of Activity Play Areas whilst a programme of entertainment runs each summer, with shows daily except Saturdays, from mid July until early September. Whatever the weather, clowns, jesters and magicians perform under cover of the PECO Marquee.

Ride away on Seaton's Tramway!

Seaton Tramway is one of East Devon's most recognisable landmarks and this summer the company will celebrate 40 years of the Tramway in Seaton. Serving Seaton, Colyford and Colyton in the Axe Valley, it offers unrivalled views of the valley and its wildlife. It exists today thanks to the efforts of its staff and volunteers, but above all because of the ingenuity and determination of the late Claude Lane. Despite frequent changes of location, fleet and size, Modern Electric Tramways Ltd, the parent company of Seaton Tramway, has been providing a regular service since 1953. Today's tramway is only the latest stage in the development of a unique system, for the company was set up not to fulfil any particular demand for public transport but rather as the culmination of one man's hobby.

Passenger services began on 28th August 1970 between Riverside Depot and Bobsworth Bridge, christened after the one shilling (5p) fare! Since overhead wire was not in place, battery trailers, towed by the trams, provided the power for the first three years. Colyford was reached by April 1971 but just afterwards Claude Lane suffered a fatal heart attack. Allan Gardner took over as Managing Director and volunteers came to help out, augmented by paid staff as funds allowed. With Seaton Railway Station sold separately by British Rail, the tramway needed to find another route to the town centre if it was to prosper. Land was purchased along the perimeter of the holiday camps, allowing the tramway to enter and terminate at Harbour Road Car Park. The marshy ground made progress difficult and it wasn't until May 1975 that passenger services commenced on this section.

Attention then shifted to the Colyton extension. In November 1975 an all-night working party removed the old rail from Colyford level crossing and replaced it with tram rail. Work on the last mile then began in earnest but was interrupted in 1978 by extraordinary floods that swept down the embankment. Flood defence measures, including an amended road layout at Colyford, held up final positioning of the level crossing lights and the opening of the extension until 1980.

With the extension open, visitor numbers increased fourfold, and more capacity was needed. Car 12 was rebuilt as an open-topper, more than doubling its capacity to 54 seats. Two full size tram bodies were acquired for conversion to single deck saloons: ex-Metropolitan Tramways car 94, an open-topper of 1904 vintage, and ex-Bournemouth Tramways car 106, built in 1921. Both bodies were narrowed by cutting them in half, reducing the width and simply rejoining the two halves together again! Car 94 entered service as car 14 in 1984, whilst car 106 was renumbered 16 and made its debut in 1992. In 1988 the company built car 17, based on the Manx "toast rack" design. It is a capable of carrying 48 passengers or, with seats removed, up to twelve wheelchair users.

Seaton Tramway's silver jubilee in 1995 heralded a new era, symbolised by the new Seaton Terminus complex, providing better amenities and an impressive landmark in the town. This was followed by a facelift for Colyton station, including an attractive platform canopy and the relaying of track in stone sets, to create a street tramway atmosphere. In 1997, Riverside Depot was extended and an attractive façade was incorporated into the north end of the building. In 1998 former Exeter car 19 was returned to service at Seaton as a single deck saloon. Together with cars 14 and 16, it allows the service to be operated solely by enclosed cars during poor weather. Extended shop and catering facilities were completed at Colyton including the fully licensed Tram Stop Restaurant offering a full hot and cold menu and of course Devon Cream Teas!

A further expansion and £250,000 investment in the fleet took place between 2002-2007 with three new hybrid design open-toppers based on the old Plymouth and Blackburn trams coming into service, allowing some of the older cars a well-earned semi retirement. Built at Bolton and Seaton, these "super trams" known as cars 9, 10 and 11 are larger and more spacious than the existing cars. 2002 also marked the end of Allan Gardner's 31-year tenure as Managing Director and a lifetime of service to the company. It had been a remarkable journey for Allan, and he had brought the Tramway through the bad times after Claude Lane's death and paved the way for its current success.

To cap another record-breaking season, Seaton Tramway was awarded the accolade of "Small Visitor Attraction of the Year" in the South West section of the Excellence in England Awards. This award, organised by the English Tourism Council and the regional tourist boards, recognises quality and innovation in many fields, and the Tramway was particularly commended for its efforts in making the tramway accessible to all, and for the high standard of its staff.

In 2007 in an attempt to entice more interest from girls in the tramway, the Pink tram was born. This started as a project to create a pink tram model which could be sold with part of the proceeds going to Breast Cancer Care, however the demand for the model was so overwhelming, the company decided to do the real thing and in July 2007, No.8 was launched in its new Barbie-pink livery, celebrating with a pink balloon launch and pink party. This tram still proves to be one of the most requested trams in the fleet along with Manx 17 and the Boat Tram. Following on from the success of the Pink tram, the company has continued the theme and supported Prostate Cancer using No.9 to promote this very worthwhile cause.

The tramway continues to develop and enhance its offer to visitors and as it enters its 40th year at Seaton, is quite excited by the prospect of the Seaton Regeneration Programme which should see a new Jurassic Coast Visitor Centre, Cycle Hub and supermarket store by 2011. The company also has plans to expand its operation at Colyton Station and maybe invest in building a further saloon car to cope with the increased wet weather global warming seems to bring!

Claude Lane's dream continues to capture the imagination of 90,000 plus delighted visitors each year.

Beautiful gardens full of history!

It may seem a little prosaic to get to a building as beautiful and full of history as Forde Abbey near Chard with a walk through the vegetable patch but that would rather underestimate the glory of this particular vegetable patch. Row upon regimental row of potatoes, peas, beans, onions, and lettuces of wonderful colour mix with vibrant flowers to create sheer abundance. This combination of discipline and wildness is a feature of the thirty acre garden as tidy borders lead to twisting paths hidden amongst shrubs and trees.

The house contains the celebrated Mortlake tapestries which pull together a romantic story of civil war, rebellion and loyalty rewarded. The theme of craftsmanship continues with the Eeles Family Pottery exhibition situated next to the tea-room which uses produce taken directly from the kitchen garden; food metres rather than food miles! For the newly inspired gardener there is the Abbey Nursery and for the inspired cook a trip to the Forde Abbey Fruit Farm neatly rounds off the day.

If all that is not enough and you are looking for a greater buzz then the Forde Abbey Charity Summer fair on the 29th July is for you. Raising money for Marie Curie Cancer Care and the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institute it brings together racing, falconry, farmers market, craft stall, ferret racing, dog agility, children's activities and live music. An event not to be missed!

Bring your little ones to see the donkeys!

The Donkey Sanctuary near Sidmouth in Devon is a rare attraction where families and childcare providers can bring their youngsters for free.

The farm, which the charity opens to the public all year round, is kept clean and tidy and is home to around 500 rescued and unwanted donkeys which are each provided with a sanctuary for life.

Close encounters with some of these donkeys can be enjoyed on Main Yard at the heart of the farm. Only a few are out on the yard at any one time, between 10.30am and 4pm daily, making it more comfortable for youngsters to meet these gentle donkeys, which may seem like giants compared with a cat or dog!

Most of the walkways are fairly level, making them suitable for pushchairs and ideal for toddlers to run around on, as Shirley Jackson, who runs Little Monkeys Childminding in Seaton, can vouch for.

She says: "We love to be outdoors and the Sanctuary is an ideal place to visit with the children, and I often meet up with other childminders and their children. Some of the walks are particularly quiet so it's really safe for them to have a run around. They particularly enjoy spotting the donkeys and watching what they get up to, such as rolling around! We make the most of the beautiful surroundings too and take time to look at all the different trees and wildlife."

Various picnic areas and benches make it easy to have lunch on-the-go. Alternatively, the Hayloft Restaurant (whose profits are donated to the donkeys) offer a great healthy menu for children. Their special Donkey Bag lunch boxes include a free colouring sheet and pencils. A limited number of highchairs are available and baby milk/food can be heated at the restaurant.

Hand-washing facilities and hand cleansers are located throughout the farm. There are two baby changing rooms on-site; the first is located by the main car park and the second opposite the Hayloft Restaurant - a real bonus if you happen to be potty training your toddler.

More reasons to visit:

- Children are entitled to a free badge from the Visitors' Centre, which declares they've "been to the largest Donkey Sanctuary in the world".

- During school holidays, child friendly activities, craft workshops and grooming sessions with specially trained donkeys are held for children for a donation.

- Children love riding on the bus and it's easy to get to the Sanctuary with three services passing its doorstep - these are: Axe Valley Mini Travel 899, Coastlinx x53/54 Jurassic Coast and Stagecoach 52a.

- The Sanctuary's sister charity can also offer riding therapy to children with special needs at drop-in sessions during school holidays.

- Registered childcare providers can book educational sessions where children experience hands-on time grooming the donkeys and learning more about their care.

- A nature centre, set within a small coastal woodland, bursting with wildlife is home to several activities to encourage youngsters to learn more about nature.

Find The Donkey Sanctuary just off the A3052 between Sidford and Seaton. Open from 9am until dusk with free admission and parking. For further information, visit www.thedonkeysanctuary.org.uk or call 01395 578222.

• Sundial Garden Nursery & Cafe

The garden in August: a place to put your feet up, light the barbecue, enjoy the sights and scents, fruit of your labours ...?

There will be much to enjoy, weather permitting. All the later-flow-ering plants, such as helianthus "Lemon Queen" (pictured), one of the stately joys of the season, growing to 6 foot or more at the back of the border.

Not forgetting either, the hardy fuchsias, coming into their own at this time of year. We grow over 100 different varieties at Sundial Garden, with many to see in our own garden.

Don't forget, however, that this is also the time to be thinking about next year. Gaps will have shown over the season, and the best time to put in herbaceous perennials is very soon, at the end of summer and early autumn. The soil is warm, and provided they are well watered in dry weather, they will establish well before the winter and get off to a good start in the spring. Shrubs can wait until later, but they too benefit from autumn planting.

So enjoy - but think ahead as well. Katharine Murray

A treasure trove to uncover!

If you pay a visit to Malabar Trading you will find a treasure trove of hand printed, hand embroidered and handcrafted textiles and kilims. There are also unusual Turkish and Moroccan lamps and Japanese ceramics.

Many of our home furnishings have been hand block printed in Northern India. The block-printing process itself is non-mechanised and highly skilled. Firstly, a designer will plan the layout of each piece, so whether it be a cushion cover or a large bedspread, the pattern on each item is complete in itself. Following the designer's drawing, a craftsman carves the intricate patterns into small blocks of teak wood, one block for each colour in the design. These are then dipped into custom mixed trays of fresh dye and the pattern is then printed onto pure cotton. To print a bedspread of 250 x 275cm the printers have to stamp approximately 1400 times with different blocks with as many as six colours. Our range of hand block printed textiles includes tablecloths, curtains, bedspreads, quilts, kaffans, dressing gowns and nightdresses.

END OF THE PIER SHOW IN HONITON

ON Friday 30th and Saturday, July 31st, members of the Honiton Pantomime Society are putting on a Variety Show in Honiton to help raise much needed funds. Titled "The End of the Pier Show", it will include songs, dances and comedy sketches. A delicious Ploughman's supper will be provided and the audience are invited to bring along their own drinks for the evening. Tables and chairs will be set out so that individual groups may sit together.

Rehearsals are now well under way. Songs have been learnt and dances memorised. Costumes are being sourced for a variety of sketches.

The Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be that Grand Old Dame of Panto, Mr Max Pipe. Max is busy sorting through his many joke books for the evening's entertainment, which is set to be performed at the Honiton Community College.

Tickets, costing £8, are now available from the Honiton Toy Shop, High Street Honiton.

This is a new venture for the Pantomime Society and they look forward to your support. If it is successful it may become a regular feature of summer in Honiton.

REHEARSALS GOING WELL: Honiton Pantomime Society members take part in a dance routine (above) and rehearse a scene (right)

THE BEST FRESH AND LOCAL FOOD AT THE OLD INN, KILMINGTON

At the Old Inn they write a fresh board menu every day. Chef Adam cooks 10 or 12 items fresh each day and serve them to you hot and delicious.

They have a small selection of starters and of course, have steaks and old favourites on every lunch and dinner.

At lunch time they also provide a selection of baguettes, ploughman's and jacket potatoes.

Leigh helps Adam to prepare four or five desserts each day to complete your meal.

Starters are £3.50 and £4.95 and main courses range from £8.95 to £15.95 The Old Inn's philosophy is simple: We buy local and we buy fresh.

They can't guarantee organic - they leave their long haired neighbour to that one, and if you want a tomato on your salad in December you can. It won't be grown locally but we will have bought it locally and it will be fresh.

Remember - It can't be fresh if the menu has more items listed than the number of customers seated.

THE Old Inn has two bars and a restaurant. The smaller bar is to the front of the building and offers a cosy environment for a drink and a chat with villagers.

The Inglenook lounge bar is home, as the name suggests, to the fabulous open fireplace and bar. They stock local ales and now hold a range of other Devon products, including Burt's Crisps, Luscombe organic drinks and Devonian spring water.

The staff are well trained and can assist with your food orders at the bar.

With a wide collection of local memorabilia and photos the bar offers a fascinating look back into its past.

THE beer garden is big and is south facing, behind the main building it is protected from the road.

The patio below is a real sun trap and last year saw customers eating outside through till late October.

There is also plenty of room to let the kids run about and all menus are served in the garden.

EASY ACCESS: The conveniently situated Old Inn

Astra sports tourer turns down price, turns up volume

THE new Astra Sports Tourer will enter the UK market later this year priced at just £16,575, over £500 less than the current entry-level Astra Estate, yet incorporating a long list of additional standard kit.

Built in Britain at Vauxhall's Ellesmere Port plant, the Astra Sports Tourer range starts with the 1.4 (100PS) ES model, which gains an extra 10PS of power over the equivalent 1.4 Astra Estate. It also adds: air conditioning, curtain airbags, Electronic Stability Control (ESP), Electronic Parking Brake (EPB), an aux-in socket and Active Safety Front Head Restraints, all as standard.

Better still, the Sports Tourer's premium over the 5-door hatch model starts from just £995, for which customers benefit from a larger cargo area (500* versus 470 litres, with rear seats up), despite retaining the same wheelbase as the new hatch.

Diesel pricing is equally aggressive, with the entry-level 110PS 1.7 CDTi ES Sports Tourer costing less than the outgoing 90PS 1.3 CDTi Astra Estate Life, yet packing more power and benefiting from sub-120g/km CO2 emissions.

The Sports Tourer range comprises four trim levels: ES, Exclusiv, SE and SRi, but adds a variety of standard and optional equipment, including FlexFold, which allows each section of the 60:40 split-fold rear seatbacks to be lowered at the press of a button housed in the walls of the cargo compartment.

Joining the new Astra range, which has now sold over 30,000 units in the UK since it was launched at the end of last year, the Sports Tourer is likely to account for approximately 10 per cent of all sales. Illustrating the depth of Vauxhall's engineering and manufacturing excellence, the Sports Tourer will be assembled solely at its Ellesmere Port plant in Cheshire, while its upper-body structure has been 100 per cent engineered at Vauxhall Engineering Centre in Bedfordshire.

NEWS FROM THE RUNNING CLUBS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

WHAT a finish to last week's 'Race The Tram' relay from Seaton to Colyton. The AVR fast gang reached the finish only one second ahead of the tram in 16:07.

The wrong type of rain was blamed for the tram's performance which was 30 seconds slower than last year. Apparently it lost traction as it was accelerating away from a bend.

All was not lost for the tram as it easily beat the other two AVR teams of mixed seniors and juniors, most of whom enjoyed their revenge by riding on it on the return journey to Seaton.

Alex Todd and Garry Perratt raced the tram back individually and just got to the terminus before it in around 18 mins.

Great fun was had by all and many thanks to the Seaton tram company who donated £100 to the Devon Air Ambulance.

After the race there were more celebrations with a barbecue at the Bayliss beach hut on Seaton beach. Fortunately the rain stopped, enabling masterchefs Vicky Bayliss and Rick Wood, with assistant Phil Bayliss, to prepare a sumptuous sausage sizzle.

Thanks to all who helped put on the event, especially Eleanor Wood who nearly tore her hair out trying to get everyone in place!

After a two week break from training, Liam Roberts raced in the Vic Musgrove Fast 5K last Wednesday to help blow away the cobwebs and get the legs moving again.

The end result was a 59 second PB with Liam finishing 5th in 16:03. He is now rather chuffed and will start training again with an aim to go sub-15:30 later in the year.

New runner Mike Giles has done things in reverse. Usually runners move on to being walkers when they reach a certain age. However Mike, egged on by his 'friend' Geoff Woodward, has been persuaded to do the opposite.

His inaugural run, after walking for many years, was definitely a baptism by fire as he signed up for the misnamed 'Seaview 17' which is actually a 20 mile tough run across Exmoor, finishing in Minehead.

Four AVR runners headed north to tackle this demanding race. Eleanor Wood, complaining about sore calf muscles from wearing high heel shoes for 10 hours at a wedding the previous day, just pipped Geoff to the post in a new PB of 3:20.29 with Geoff four seconds behind in 3:20.32.

He, in a gentleman like manner, encouraged her on over the final field to forge ahead. Retro (Steve Reynolds) strangely was also complaining of sore calf muscles - read into that what you may! He had a good run, finishing in 3:54.38.

Back to Mike - his target was to get in under four hours which he did in 3:58.47. Watch this space - this erstwhile walker is now hooked on running!

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

THE 25th Haytor Heller 6 mile race organised by Teignbridge Trotters took place on Saturday evening and the name aptly describes the start.

Runners are set off half way up the ascent to Haytor which is challenging for the hardest of runners. It's usual to see St John's Ambulance in attendance at running events but to have the Mountain Rescue Service present was a little worrying!

This was the first time the race has been run in the evening and it was a complete sell out before the day. The race is mainly run across rugged, open moorland but includes two short sections of woodland and a stream crossing.

Runners are treated to beautiful scenery across Dartmoor and there are plenty of large granite boulders to negotiate.

Brian Charters was first home for Honiton in 46:48 and 18th position. Next came Bruce Strawbridge and Steve Davey who often have a closely contested race.

They took this to an extreme level this weekend as Steve followed Bruce for the entire race until the last 300 metres when Steve overtook. Bruce responded and ran as fast as he could to catch up. Steve upped his pace once again and they crossed the line at exactly the same time in 47th place in 52:49.

Judy Davey came 69th in 56:28 and took home a bottle of wine for coming 2nd in her category. Tracey Strawbridge was really pleased with her time of 1:17.11 and 219th position. There were 240 runners. All agreed it was a great albeit very tough race and vowed to return next year.

The parents of Honiton Juniors were invited to the annual awards evening and were treated to games of indoor tug-of-war as the weather was so wet. The president of Honiton Running Club, Alan Rowe MBE, presented the awards and Richard Harris of To and Fro, who generously sponsors transport for the club, was also in attendance.

Awards were given to the following members: Great Improvement - Hester Heeler-Frood and Harry Whiteley; Dedicated Runner - Jake Harvey, Katie Davey, Kieran Anderson & Reuben Heeler-Frood; Tough runner - Ella Harvey & Ed Cannings; Runner of the Year - Sam Urquhart & Lily Helston; Loyalty - Sophie Keywood, Joanna Davey & Jennie Doble; Achievement in Athletics - Lauren Davey & Joe Urquhart.

All members were congratulated on their individual achievements throughout the year. It has been a very successful year for the juniors and we are looking forward to resuming in September.

If anyone aged 11-16 is interested in joining the juniors, click on the link to the junior section on the website www.honitonrc.com for more information.

Golf round-up

Gilbert takes home Harris Tankard

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

Seniors' Section

THIRTY THREE Seniors' members took part in a Stableford on Friday, July 16th, which also incorporated the Harris Tankard for the winner.

In blustery conditions an excellent round of 39 points by Captain Gilbert Cox (18), refreshed from a holiday in Austria, secured both Harris Tankard and first place in the Stableford.

Second with 36 points was Chris Jowett (16) while two players returned scores of 35 points. Third place on the inward half ruling went to Sid Pember (18) with Bryan Dale (22) the player to miss out.

On Monday 19th the team travelled to Honiton and despite a late surge lost narrowly by four and a half to two and a half. Winners for Axe Cliff were Peter Knighting / John Mant and Chris Walker / Terry Jessup. The half point was won by Alan Vincent and Bryan Dale.

The main club competed the Sunday before last for the Gees Bowl. The winner with a nett 69 was Paul Clode (8). Second with a nett 70 was Cyril Hellier (11) and third with a nett 71 was Jim Matthews.

Ladies' Section

IT WAS a busy week for the Ladies - on Friday 16th, in gale force winds, the Royal North Devon Ladies travelled to Axe Cliff for the home match in the league. Axe Cliff were victorious winning four and a half to a half.

Winning players were Sandra Walker, Glenda Board, Alison Cook and Chris Drewe with Barbara Cummings gaining the half.

On Monday 19th, in glorious conditions, the Fingle Glen Ladies travelled to Axe Cliff for the return match in the League. The result was a half. Winning Ladies for Axe Cliff were Sandra Walker, Helen Gaudie and Barbara Cummings.

Last Wednesday was Lady Captain's Day - coffee followed by an 18 hole Stableford with a Pimms break on the 10th! The weather was once again glorious.

This was followed by an excellent meal. Winners: 1st - Di Rogers (29) with 36 points, 2nd - Sandra Walker (16) with 34 points, 3rd - Glenda Board (17) with 33 points.

Hazel Williamson (25) was fourth with 32 points and in fifth place was Maureen Broomfield (35) with 31 points. Mystery hole winners were Pat Ayshford, Liz Wheelton and Margaret Brown.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

B Team vs Axe Cliff

ANDY Harrison's fame as a cricket captain has spread far and wide (who could forget his 'Harrison' of four wickets in a row) but now he's bringing all his 'nous' and expertise to captaining the B team.

He has a kernel of regulars that he mixes and matches, augmented by new blood who are all keen to learn the delights of B team golf.

This week the game was against Axe Cliff at home and the fresh face was Dean Bonetta whom Andy cleverly paired with Chris Earle (always a rock in the 'batting order').

The pairing worked so well that not only did they win their 'rubber' but recorded two 2s into the bargain. So keen was Dean to play again that he has sworn to put his name down for the away game next year.

Axe Cliff away is a different kettle of fish as he will no doubt learn. The matches against Axe Cliff are always a delight though with no quarter given (nor any tap in putts if Wagner and Wall are anything to go by).

We are usually teams of six pairings but because of our kitchen and warm welcome we generally stretch on request to seven pairings. This time was no different and the games went Honiton's way with a 5-2 win, four wins, two halves and the one loss going to Captain John Stabb who made up the required numbers at very short notice.

After much banter in the clubhouse it was generally agreed that we should get these fixtures back to home and away inside one season and now Axe Cliff have a restaurant to rival our own I'm sure we'll be up to a team of seven for the away game.

Ladies' Section

WITH this weeks EWGA Medal, the Ladies were also playing for the Breakthrough Brooch (lowest net score). The winner of the Brooch was Joan Smith with Nett 72.

Silver Division: Winner - Jane Watts, net 73; 2nd - Chris Pearce, net 74. Bronze I: Winner - Joan Smith, net 72; 2nd - Chris Luttman, net 73. Bronze II: Winner - Majson Stroud, net 76 on c/b; 2nd - Stella Ford, net 76 losing out on c/b; 3rd - Susan Hyde, net 77.

Congratulations to past Lady Captain Sue Selway who is the Devon County Vets Scratch Champion. Sue played at Saunton Sands in difficult weather conditions on 15th July and carded an excellent Gross 88.

Seniors' Section

ON FRIDAY, July 23rd, the Seniors competed for the Longhurst Cup in a Three Ball Best Ball Stableford format.

Each team consisted of one low, one medium and one high handicap player and there were 25 three-man teams in all.

This was a good turn out considering the Seniors Open took place the day before and the annual Honiton trip to Chippenham, which took several Seniors away for the day.

The weather was mainly fine with some dark clouds but no rain and very little wind and the course was in superb condition with many of the dry patches now well watered after the recent wet weather.

The pace of play was commendably swift as teams were quick to achieve their 'best' score then moved on to the next tee.

The standard of play was high and prizes were awarded to the first four placed teams. In 4th place were D Morgan, M Keeley and R Bird with 44 Points.

With 45 points but losing on a count back, E Backhouse, J Chew and R Underwood came 3rd, and in 2nd place, also with 45 points, were G Filtress, C Hughes and P Holdsworth.

The winners of the competition and of the Longhurst Cup for 2010 on 45 points and winning on countback were A Falconer, R E Jones and R Milton.

As well as the Longhurst Cup, the prizes awarded were vouchers to be spent in the professional shop. There were 4 twos scored on the day, S Blundell on the 4th, R Craig on the 2nd, and P Purtell on the 2nd and the 12th. Each two earned the player 18 golf balls.

Secretaries Supper

FRIDAY evening saw the outgoing secretary, Brian Young, host a 'thank you' supper for his friends and members.

The evening was well attended with many of the captains that Brian had stewarded through their years in office. Brian had been Honiton's Secretary for the past ten years and had quite a few delightful stories to tell about his time in office.

In his past life Brian had been a school teacher and when he took over as secretary the then chairman, Keith Upstone asked him if he thought he would notice much difference in his new job.

"Not much," he replied, "golfers are very much the same as school kids in so much as there are too many that can't read, can't write and can't add up!"

He was given some valuable information by the secretary at his old club inasmuch as he was told he would have to answer some difficult questions.

In answering one way he would upset half the club and in answering another way he would upset the other half but if he didn't answer at all he would guarantee to upset the whole of the club.

Past captain Nick Richards was on hand to propose a vote of thanks and Brian, who will remain a playing member, wished the club every success and hoped for the members continuing interest in the running of their club.

DISAPPOINTING RESULT FOR AXMINSTER

AXMINSTER with Phil SpongAxminster Town 1st XI v Cockington

WITH Cockington lodged at the bottom of the division and having beaten them earlier in the season, Axminster would have been looking to make their own midtable position more secure with the fixture.

Paul Miller won the toss and asked the home side to bat but the Axminster opening attack made little impression as Cockington moved to 69 after 18 overs.

Nick Taylor finally broke through dismissing both openers and the game appeared to go the visitors way as three more wickets fell to see the score 107. Enter Andy Hele who smashed his way to a century in only 54 balls, a knock that included 11 sixes!

This left Axminster a total of 242 to chase and they obviously never recovered from the Hele onslaught as apart from Raoul East (34) and David Murnane (22) they were unable to make any inroads into the total and succumbed after only 32 overs to be bowled out for 111.

Although the loss may have little effect on their league position, nevertheless, a disappointing result for Axminster.

Axminster Town 2nd XI v Heathcoat

HAVING suffered at the hands of Heathcoat in the first round of games this was an improved performance from the second eleven.

It could have been better still if during their innings they had not suffered from two rather foolish runouts.

With the score at 80 for 2 the innings was building well when James Dunford (31) was run out by a direct throw, Max Felgate was dismissed LBW and then Paddy Barroclough became the second runout victim within two overs to take the side to 85-5.

Alan Ostler provided a more than useful 25 but the total of 143 for 8 after 46 overs was far less than at one time envisaged. At 70-1 after 13 overs the visitors looked in control but the introduction of Dan Fuzzard (2-7) and then James Dunford (3-17) swung the game Axminster's way but they were unable to break a match winning partnership for the 8th wicket between Moison (27 n.o.) and Dixon (5 n.o.).

Axminster Town 3rd XI v Whimble

AXMINSTER came away from Whimble with a second successive victory and have started to get away from that relegation zone.

Asked to bat they made a useful 217 with contributions from Ian Barwick (62), Saun Perry (50) and skipper Mark Enticott (20). Witton (4-54) and Burden (3-20) proved the best of the home side bowlers but it was Axminster's Steve Wakley who took the bowling honours for the match when in a 12 over spell he took 6-37.

Introduced into the attack with the home side strongly placed at 88-1 he dismissed both Gillard (29) and opener Van Grudings (22) in his first two overs and then two wickets in his fifth over gave Whimble a draw as the best result.

A stubborn partnership for the last wicket lasting 12 overs almost denied Axminster but Saun Perry returned to bowl Treais to much relief to the visitors who won with an over to spare.

HONITON with Andrew LappingHoniton 1st XI v Kenn 1st XI

HONITON 1st XI travelled to Kenn in a top of the table cash. On a damp pitch pitch the skipper won the toss and invited Kenn to bat.

With no Adam Holmes this week Phil Tansley and Kev Kelly opened the attack and had the Kenn batsman in trouble.

Wickets fell regularly and with the exception of Kenn's overseas player (who took a liking to Kev's bowling) Honiton had Kenn in trouble at 101 for 7.

Kelly finished his spell taking an excellent 5 for 60 from his 13 overs which would have been 5 for 15 thanks to the overseas player.

Honiton had been in this position before against Kenn and exactly like the home fixture Kenn dug in. With credit to Kenn they were finally all out in the last over making 207.

Phil Tansley finished with 2 for 41 and part time bowler Pete Matravers 2 for 42 and Brad Groves picking up the other wicket.

Skipper Neil Pulman took three catches of which two can only be described as incredible and won't be seen again.

Prior to batting Honiton felt this was a score they could chase down but this was not to be. So far this season their batting has been very good but with the exception of Tim Hemery who made a very good 41 not out no one else troubled the scorers. They were finally all out for 114 taking 6 points and Kenn 20 points.

Kenn now head the table by four pts from Honiton with Shaldon now lurking 11 pts behind Honiton but they play Kenn next week.

Honiton entertain Cheriton Fitzpayne next week in a game they cannot afford to lose if they are to gain promotion. So with 5 games left, it's all to play for.

Honiton 2nd XI v Kentisbeare 2nd XI

FIFTH placed Honiton welcomed visitors Kentisbeare to 'The Lane', in urgent need of a good performance to reverse recent fortunes which have seen them slip from third place to be uncomfortably within range of the relegation melange embroiling the bottom five teams.

Having lost the toss, Honiton found themselves in the field as Kentisbeare made steady, if unremarkable, early progress against the new ball bowling of Brinsford and Jaworski.

Jaworski was unlucky not to have an early wicket caught behind by the otherwise impeccable Strawbridge. Adam Thompson came on in the tenth over, immediately strangling the scoring as the away side's run rate dipped to around two an over.

With the Kentisbeare innings drifting soporifically, Thommo finally claimed the first wicket, bowling G Farley with the score on 43.

Brinsford eventually got his reward when J Farley was well taken by Kelly, backpedalling furiously at mid-on and Schmidt and Hill kept the brakes on before Squire's attempted flick towards mid-wicket gave Jaworski the opportunity of holding a good catch from the resulting leading edge.

At the mid point of the innings, with the score on 53-3, and with many of the vast crowd and several fielders beginning to nod off, the visitors would surely have to launch an assault sooner rather than later.

The aggression duly arrived after the drinks break in the form of Reed who began to push the score along with a series of meaty blows.

Hill uprooted Cooke's off stump and Lapping claimed an excellent low catch at silly mid on from the next delivery to make it 98-5. Woolfenden and Reed put on 58 for the sixth wicket before the hostile Thompson returned to make it 156-7 assisted by a second catch from Jaworski and a stinger at short cover from Travers.

Travers made a herculean effort to take a catch off Reed, running 35 yards at full tilt to wide long on and just failing to cling on as he sailed through the stratosphere, a la Eddie the Eagle.

Although the fielding and catching was up several notches on the previous week's contemptible offering, there was one incident where a certain geriatric did well to take a smeared top edge at third man, only to bring scorn and shame on the family name of Bo Diddleby by contriving to lose control as a result of a sudden involuntary nervous twitch.

With Kentisbeare pushing for every run, a direct hit by Gandalf Beighton from fully 40 yards, with half a stump to aim at, saw off Hazledine. Reed (76), had no answer to the extreme downhill pace of Hill (4-28), finally edging one to Brinsford at short third man and the last man was expertly cleaned up by Thommo (4-33) as Kentisbeare were all out for a competitive 168 in the 46th over.

After an extensive and bewildering array of signals from umpire Connett following delivery of the first ball with no square leg official present, the Honiton reply finally got under way for real with Beighton and Strawbridge at the crease. Strawbridge made a quick-fire 11 before edging behind to be replaced by Steve 'class is permanent' Rampaul.

Beighton and Rampaul steadied the innings, taking it to 60 before the number three, looking well set and having dealt only in boundaries, snicked one to the keeper for 20 as he was beginning to open up. Travers hit two brooding-nagian sixes in his rapid 20 before falling LBW to a full length ball from Darling.

At 81-3 and with a rather highly strung middle order to come, Honiton were in desperate need of some level-headed support for Beighton's canny knock. This they found in the unlikely form of Ian 'Brain' Kelly who, after a skittish start, kept it simple by defending the good balls and plundering runs from anything loose.

Beighton's flashes of brilliance included several rubber-wristed flicks through mid wicket reminiscent of Mohammad Azharuddin in his pomp.

Together, the pair broke the back of Honiton's mission, taking the total to 141 and within sight of the finishing line.

When Kelly fell, scooping Wilkinson's slower ball onto his middle stump, for 33 (four fours), the home side were within sight of the line, but needed to make absolutely sure there were no foul-ups in adding the last 28 runs.

As it happened, onlookers of limited faith need not have worried as Lapping (6 not out) and man of the match Beighton's masterful unbeaten 67 (seven fours) made sure that Honiton cantered to victory with eight overs to spare.

Winning by six wickets ensured 20 points for the Hatters, keeping them in fifth place, one point behind Exmouth, but pulling away from the relegation battle which even now might embroil any of the teams outside the top three.

UPLYME with Paul CromptonUplyme & Lyme Regis 1st XI v Yelverton

A STAND of 83 between Mark Batey (38) and captain Adam Caddy (48) gave the visitors a brief glimmer of hope in a long afternoon in Yelverton.

A crumbling performance by the back six batsmen, who succumbed to G Brain (45-4) and J Stokes (15-3) for a combined 23 runs, left the Uplyme 1st with just 155 to defend.

Despite a spirited bowling performance, which saw Adam Caddy (16-0) and Ally Rattenbury (52-2) bowl 12 maiden overs between them, a strong knock from C Broughton (95 not out) saw the home side secure the victory by six wickets.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nd XI v Countess Wear

IN A dull match, which saw very few boundaries, Uplyme 2nd XI's season continued in vain as they fell to Countess Wear by seven wickets.

A good innings from Jack Lamb-Wilson (48) and Wallace Blackmore who quietened the ghosts of innings past with a brilliant knock of 30 not out could not keep the hosts' hopes alive after the opening three batsmen faulted for just seven runs.

A solid innings by the visitors T Brookes (82 not out) ensured and M Bovey (20 not out) ensured another disappointing day for Uplyme, whose bowlers could not break the batsmen. Only Rory Holmes (29-1) and Mike Holding (27-1) proving successful.

Bowls round-up

HONITON with Tony Broughton

THE best news this week is that Carole Binmore won the Budleigh Tournament Ladies Singles Title.

She had what on paper appears an easy victory of 21-5 over a very capable Sarah Harris from the Cullumpton Bowling Club but these things are never quite what they seem. Well done, Carole.

Wednesday afternoon our Over 60's 'A' side played away to Ottery St Mary and got the same result as last week, beaten on both rinks.

The 'C' side were away to Uffculme 'A' and they also for the second week running lost on both rinks.

The 'B' side was the only side to gain just one point for a draw on one rink at home playing Exonia 'C'. The other rink lost heavily.

The Feniton ladies have become a new force to reckon with in County Bowls Group Three.

Wednesday evening the Honiton ladies travelled to the neutral green of Culm Vale to play Feniton in the Two Fours Inter Club competition and came off second best.

Rosemary Hirons, Rita Barwick, Ann Hillyear and Shirley Hiscocks did well to hold a tough Feniton rink for most of the match. They then force ahead to win by 11 shots.

The other rink of Yvonne Rayner, Carole Binmore, Brenda Harris and Sue Evans came up against a formidable lead in Glynda Blackmore who put them under pressure from the first end.

If by chance Honiton took the shot back from her then the equally formidable Lyn Eveleigh, playing three, soon got it back. Ruth Clarke at two and Ruby Veitch skipping formed a first class rink.

This Honiton rink could not get into the game and found themselves over 20 shots down with a few ends to play. They did rally on these last few ends to bring their rink loss back to 20 but it was too little, too late and the Feniton ladies came out well deserved winners.

There was some recompense on Thursday when Rita Barwick, Dulcie Broughton and Shirley Hiscocks gained a valuable win in the County Benevolent Triples held at Sidmouth against Feniton's Glynda Blackmore, Avril Coyne and Ruby Veitch by just six shots.

The Honiton trio had been down but managed to forge ahead to 18-16 on the 16th end.

On the 17th end Dulcie managed to pull the jack through and they picked up five shots. This really sealed the Feniton ladies fate but the skip tried valiantly the same shot as Dulcie. With her last bowl of the last end she rang the jack through but only scored a one.

Thursday three ladies triples went to Madeira and although Brenda Harris's rink lost by one and Pearl Hackwood's by two but a good win of 29-14 by Chris Nex, Berry Maynard and Rita Barwick carried the match.

That evening the men had a Two Counties League match against Seaton and with them fielding a totally male side against a Honiton mixed side we were only able to win one rink out of four, losing the match.

CHARDSTOCK with Cynthia Rolph

CHARDSTOCK recorded a win on all rinks and overall by 84-62 shots at home to Chard on Sunday 18th July in a mixed triples match.

Two rinks won by a good margin, the others by 1 and 2 shots respectively. P Baldwin, B Howard, M Rogers won 17-15, A Callagan, P Potter, a Day won 22-12, J Bodily, T Bird, N Denslow won 19-18, R Wines, G Bodily, B Sluman won 26-17.

On Tuesday, July 20th, rain became the only winner in a mens' four rink match at Crewkerne. The match finished at 15 ends, with the score unbelievably being 47-47 shots. With the dreadful weather this was a fair score-line.

A Bridport mens' team were the visitors on the evening of Thursday, 22nd July for a four triples match.

Chardstock only managed to win on one rink and losing the match overall by 46-76 shots. J Smith, P Bowden, J Rolph lost 4-25, R Wines, B Howard, M Rogers lost 8-16, J Marks, G Bodily K Wakelin lost 14-21, A Callagan, A Curtis, K Warren won 20-14.

Dunkeswell were the visitors on Saturday, July 24th for a four mixed triples match. Both teams won on two rinks, but the Chardstock Club captains' rink won by 14 shots which helped to give the home side a good overall win of 73-52 shots.

T Bird, A Day, S Jeffery won 17-13, J Marks, D Emery, J Bartholomew lost 16-18, R Wines, B Sluman, N Denslow won 15-10, A Callagan, K Wakelin, P Compton won 25-11.

The annual competition for the Jimmy Wyatt Trophy took place on Sunday, July, 25th.

In a four-rink 21-end mixed round robin competition Chardstock fielded four teams with visiting sides from Bridport, Crewkerne, Feniton and Ottery St Mary taking part.

The eventual winners were Ottery St Mary, represented by John Ward, Molly Parker, Margaret Bright and Don Dalton with a score of plus 16 shots.

The runners-up were a Chardstock team represented by S. Jeffery, J Milford, J Rolph and B Sluman with a score of plus 12 shots.

The trophies were presented by Mrs Millie Clifford, a life member of Chardstock Bowling Club. Thanks were extended to Mr Jim Tucker for organising the event.

SEATON with Ted Harden

ON MONDAY, July 19th we beat Ilminster in a six rink match by 131 shots to 104. Top rink was Ian Manchester, Alan Cook and Sue Rutter.

Three ladies triples beat Axminster ladies on July 21st by 82 shots to 32. Top triple was Sheila Pike, Ann Wright and Marian Vessey.

On the same day Seaton men lost their winning streak in the over 60s league when they met Morchard Bishop and lost by 23 shots to 35. Top Seaton triple was David Ford, Keith Miles and Roger Woolland.

On July 22nd three ladies rinks went to Feniton and won by 57 shots to 55. Top rink was Olive Blunden, Nancy Collins, Joan Russell and Barbara Harden. On the same day Seaton met Honiton in the Two Counties League and won three rinks to one. The shot difference was 84 to 54.

Top Seaton rink was Alan Wood, Alan Pritchard, Brian Kenning and Roger Woolland.

On July 23rd Seaton men lost at home to Lyme Regis by 62 shots to 73. The only Seaton winning rink was John Packham, Malcolm Carvell, Geoff Fullalove and Keith Miles.

However on the same day a Seaton rink of Jeremy Allison, Ted Harden, David Ford and Ron Rowley won the Sidmouth Jubilee Cup with a plus score of 14. Earlier in the season Seaton ladies won a similar event at Sidmouth.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE Feniton Ladies team again produced the performance of the week when they defeated Honiton Ladies in the quarter final of the Devon Inter Club competition at Cullumpton by 41-32.

The rink scores were Glynda Blackmore, Ruth Clarke, Lyn Eveleigh and Ruby Veitch 30-10, Judy Smith, Gill Smith, Avril Coyne and Christine Granger 11-22.

They now go forward to the semi-Finals and final at Tavistock on Wednesday, August 25th. Well done ladies and the best of luck in the semi-finals.

The Ladies entertained Seaton later in the week in a thrilling three rink match losing by two shots. The winning rink was Lyn Eveleigh, Jean Cartland, Gill Smith and Joyce Lovell 19-15.

Otters seek flagman

OTTERY ST MARY

THE Otters have continued their pre-season build-up with a 1-0 victory at Staverton, Michael Burke scoring the only goal of the game in the 2nd half.

Otters manager Dane Bunney was pleased with the workout and the clean sheet.

Otters' games this week are at Royal Marines (6:45pm ko, Tuesday) and home to Foxhole Stars (3pm ko, Saturday).

HAYDEN ROLLASON

SIDBURY CUP: On the field the Otters began their pre-season friendlies by beating hosts Sidbury 5-0 last week in the Sidbury Cup with goals from Lance Easton, Ash McDermid and new signings Simon Parnell (2) and Craig Roberts.

In the final on Sunday they lost to Sandhurst Town FC of the Combined Counties League 3-4.

The Otters fought their way back from 3-0 down to 3-3 before agonisingly losing to a controversial goal with the last kick of the ball.

The Otters goals came from; Parnell, Easton and Aaron Carpanini. Goalkeeper Dale Strawbridge was sent-off at the final whistle for dissent.

NEW SIGNINGS: Manager Dane Bunney has made another four new signings this week.

Central midfielder Ben Ferguson from Vospers, winger Craig Roberts from Elburton Villa, midfielder Michael Burke from Liskeard Athletic and striker Simon Parnell from Plymouth Parkway.

Bunney said: "The signing of Burke has caused quite a stir in Plymouth with managers questioning how I've managed to persuade Michael to Ottery. He had offers from Bodmin Town and Saltash United, but I'm pleased to confirm he has signed on the dotted line for Ottery St Mary.

"Other great news on the player front is we have retained Tony Ali. It has taken me five weeks to do this but I have persuaded him to stay and he will be the club captain.

"The quality of the signings made this summer should put us in a position to compete in all competitions.

"We have a squad of winners who won't accept anything less than first place in any competition we enter. We are now very close to finalising the squad."

SEATON TOWN

SEATON Town, and Ben Ede in particular, began their pre-season friendlies in fine style. Ede scored all four as Seaton won 4-0 at Honiton Town on Wednesday.

COLYTON

COLYTON 0 Alphington 5

ANOTHER excellent pre-season performance from Colyton against very strong Peninsula

League opposition, although tired legs took their toll and the Alphas ran in three goals in the last ten minutes to give the final score line an unrealistic look.

Colyton started the game in a very confident mood, the back line of Gary Sims, Gary May, Nick Pritchard and Mike Cullum look extremely composed and stroked the ball around with ease and began to prise open the Alphas creating several half chances.

On 15 minutes, with Coly dominating the possession, they were caught by a classic counter attack.

TWILIGHT CRICKET AT AXMINSTER

AS part of the ECB's Chance to Shine scheme, Axminster Cricket Club have been running 'Twilight cricket' sessions on Friday nights between 5:15pm and 6:15pm, which helps bridge the gap between school and club cricket.

The last session took place on Friday, July 16th, where the kids took a test on skills learnt, including batting, bowling, catching and throwing. All the children did well and received either a bronze, silver or gold award.

Loyal club member and coach Andrew Moulding is running 'Catchie Shubbie' Friday night sessions at the club. 'Catchie Shubbie' is a non-stop game which can involve all the family - Mums, Dads, Grandparents and of course the kids. The evening only costs a £1 per person, with the bar and a BBQ always available.

The Summer holiday club head coach Dan Murnane has arranged a number of summer holiday courses including the annual Twenty20 Summer Camp on the 4th, 5th and 6th August. Three fun filled days learning all the key skills needed in the frantic form of 20 over cricket.

On the 16th, 17th and 18th of August Cloakham Lawns welcomes the Peak Performance Advanced Coaching. Peak Performance is run by ECB Level 4 Coach Ben Wellington and Middlesex Bowling coach/ex-England and Somerset bowler Richard Johnson.

Murnane said: "This will be their second year of running the 'Fun in the Sun' coaching course at Cloakham, which is the only place in Devon that they venture, which is a massive coup for the club."

Finally on August 25th the West of England spin bowling coach Paul Lawrence will be running a specialist spin bowling workshop.

If you are interested in any of club's summer sessions feel free to contact Dan on 07845 498057.
